SS: Five Themes of Geography

Happy December! Time is quickly flying by and we are looking forward to celebrating the holiday season with your wonderful children.

Room Moms: A big thank you to our room moms, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Karwaski, and Mrs. Hodge for all the time energy they have put into the first half of our year! Our learning experience today was a blast and we are so appreciative of you!

Mrs. Drager Out Reminder: Just a reminder that Mrs. Drager will not be at school next week due to a family commitment. Mrs. Thomas will be her substitute for the week and has previously worked closely with Mrs. Ross.

Please send all emails to Mrs. Ross next week because Mrs. Drager will not be able to access her school email. If you are sending a message through Remind, please make sure it is sent to Mrs. Ross.

No Friday Folder Next Week: We will not be sending home a Friday folder on Friday, December 20th. Papers from next week will be sent home in January.

Frog Pourquoi Tale: For those students who completed their Frog Pourquoi Tale, a purple half sheet rubric will be in their Friday Folder. The only problem is that their Frog Pourquoi Tale is NOT connected to it. I am keeping their writings for a later activity. You can still go over the rubric with your child and ask them questions, just no details!!!

Mrs. Drager

- ❖ Math: Final Test on Thursday
- ❖ SS: Five Themes of Geography – We will be completing our Google Slide show on our Winter Wonderland Project. Students have been using the Five Themes of Geography to describe our made up city.
- ❖ Coming Up in January: Geometric Shapes

Mrs. Ross

- ❖ Unit: Adaptations and the Wide World of Frogs
- ❖ Language Arts: We are nearing the end of our Pourquoi Tale writings (some have finished/some are finishing up). We are focusing on parts of speech and how those words can enhance their writing (using words for effect)!!!
- ❖ Writing: We will focus on poetry next week to make a published piece!
